

Indian Red Cross Society
National Headquarter
Blood Centre

Sub: Clarifications required by Hemogenomics-NAT Retender Notice.

1. Scope of inventory management of Reagents.

The selected firm would have to maintain storage capacity of 6000 Test-Kit / reagents at a time with refrigerator and deep Freezer. (Item No. 8 NAT Specifications)

The purchase order for purchase of Tests-Kit / Reagents would be given to the selected firm by IRCS, NHQ well in time to maintain the stock keeping in mind that the work shall not be suffered. Reagents /kits would be supplied by the selected company within 15 days from issue of purchase order. (Item No. 12 of NAT Specifications)

The cost of validated reportable tests would only be paid by IRCS, NHQ on monthly basis. Kits/reagents used in testing of invalid tests including failure tests would be replaced free of cost by the selected firm. (Item No. 6 NAT Specifications).

2.Scope of payments.

Kits/Reagents used in testing invalid tests including failure tests would be replaced free of cost by the selected firm / company. The selected company would send the bill of valid reportable tests on monthly basis to IRCS.NHQ. Blood Centre, for payment. (Item No. 6 of NAT specifications)

3.Scope of the lab infrastructure:

The selected company shall provide and shall be responsible for providing the infrastructure required to make the equipment and lab functional and not affected by any deficiency /lack of harmony in the cooling system etc. For that purpose, the firm would manage other accessories including UPS with three hours back up.

The ownership of NAT lab to be set by the selected company, will be in the name of IRCS, NHQ. The selected firm would run the equipment on existing electric provision which is single phase. Any additional electric requirements must be arranged by the selected company to avoid single second interruption. The electric charges of the NAT Lab would be borne by IRCS, NHQ. (Item No. 5 & 11)

4.Scope of Manpower.

The selected firm/company would depute the qualified fulltime laboratory technician in IRCS, NHQ, Blood Centre at their cost to work in NAT to look after all technically expected work under the supervision of technician of IRCS, Blood Centre. The technician appointed by the selected firm would maintain the record of Test-Kit / reagents, Valid reportable tests, testing and reporting of the tests on monthly basis (Item No, 20 of Tender Notice)

5.Ranking of bidders.

The successful bidder would be considered as explained in the Price Bid Form i.e total cost including GST. (Item No. 6.iii of Tender Notice)